Thank you to our presenters and information tables—

Presenters
- Clint Bailey, United States Geological Survey
- Rishab Mahajan, Geosyntec

Information Tables
- Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning- Fox River Basin Watershed Plans
- Friends of the Fox River
- Geosyntec
- The Conservation Foundation
Thank you to our partners - financial and in-kind

- Algonquin
- Aurora
- Barrington
- Batavia
- Cary
- Crystal Lake
- E Dundee
- Elburn
- Elgin
- Fox Metro WRD
- Fox River Ecosystem Partnership
- Fox River WRD
- Friends of the Fox River

- Geneva
- Gilberts
- Kane County
- Lake in the Hills Sanitary District
- N Moraine WRD
- Plano
- Sandwich
- Sierra Club
- St. Charles
- Wauconda
- Yorkville
- Yorkville-Bristol Sanitary District
2019 Fox River Study Group Initiatives

- 17th year of monthly all in-kind monitoring of Fox River & its tributaries
- Update of FoxDB environmental database - ISWS completed March 2019
- USGS monitoring conditions at upstream boundary of study area
- Update of computer models completed - Geosyntec

- Committees
  - Communications - working on outreach materials
  - Monitoring/Modeling - oversight of current modeling and monitoring work
  - Long Range Plan & Spending Policy - reviewing & updating 10-year implementation plan
  - Working with IDNR and Army Corps to restart Fox River Connectivity & Habitat Study
  - Water Quality Trends Analysis - ISWS completed February 2019
Over the last decade (2006–2016), most nutrient-related pollutants levels are declining in a 62-mile stretch of the Fox River between the Stratton Dam and Yorkville.
Water Quality Trends

Nutrients related pollution levels decreasing over the last decade (2006–2016)

Fox River at Montgomery
Remaining 2019 Meetings

• The Fox River Study Group board will meet on Nov. 21 and Dec. 19 at 9:30 am at Fox Metro WRD, 628 Rt. 31, Oswego.

www.foxriverstudygroup.org